It is a vivid account of an adventurous trip through cities like Bukhara, Samarkand, Andhijan, Xian, Yarkand, Kashgar and Lhasa; lush oases such as Hotan and Turfan; the grand Gobi and Taklamakan deserts; ancient monuments and mosques; winding up finally at the monasteries in the Himalayas. It is a first-hand account of a two-month trip marked with challenges and fun. The accompanying photographs bring the story alive.
