by Pradeep Chandra

Aamir—Actor, Activist, Achiever. An acclaimed actor who became the thinking man's superstar. An ardent activist who highlighted complex social issues and spread awareness. An accomplished achiever who reinvented the entire concept of a movie star. Aamir Khan—actor, producer, director—has so many colours in his life that it is almost impossible to compile them in a single book. The author and photographer, Pradeep Chandra, attempts the insurmountable task of tracing the trajectory of Aamir's career that has seen him evolve and become one of the greatest contributors to the art of cinema in India and a hugely influential public figure. This book is the author's tribute to the superstar and the man behind it.

- A unique pictorial biography on the actor par excellence
- Filled with attractive film stills, extraordinary images, paintings and sketches of Aamir Khan
- Gives the reader an all round perspective about the multifaceted Aamir
  - Contains essays by eminent guest writers like Rajat Sharma, Rauf Ahmed, Narendra Kunsur, Mayank Shekhar and Vikas Chandra Sinha, all of who have observed the actor's development over the years

Photographer Pradeep Chandra is also a writer and a painter. As a photojournalist, he has been associated with The Illustrated Weekly of India, The Times of India, The Indian Express, The Week and The Sunday Observer, to name just a few. Some of his memorable shows include 'The Alien Insiders', his documentation of the plight of Kashmiri refugees; 'Haveli Dreams', on the havelis of Rajasthan; a tribute to the Taj Mahal Hotel and an exhibition on the children of Kamathipura. He has participated in several art camps and group shows in India and abroad.

Pradeep Chandra has previously authored coffee-table books on M.F. Husain and Amitabh Bachchan. He lives in Mumbai and is currently working on a book on the city.
