Vikramjit Singh Rooprai

A journey through the evocative secrets of the Delhi forts

*Delhi Heritage Top 10 series is a comprehensive guide to Delhi's heritage icons and architectural gems. The first volume in the series delves into the fascinating history and the great significance of forgotten, subterranean, manmade water structures, commonly known as baolis or stepwells. Culled from half a decade of rigorous research and exploration, this second book takes us on a journey through the magnificent forts of Delhi, covering their architecture, history, and importance in the socio-cultural landscape of Delhi as we know it.*

Vikramjit Singh Rooprai is a heritage activist and educator. Since 2009, he is exploring Delhi's monuments to promote the rich heritage of India. He established Heritageshaala, which sets up heritage labs in schools across India to encourage and develop newer methods of pedagogy through history. On social media channels, he is better known by his handle @delhiheritage and for his website www.monumentsofdelhi.com.

From the intricate detailing of the stately Red Fort and Feroz Shah Kotla to bemoaning the forgotten history of Qila-i-Rai Pithora and Nai ka Kot, this is a handbook and more—a ready reference of the stories of its opulent patrons, a compass for wandering enthusiasts, a barometer of the rise and fall of all the cities we know as Delhi.
